EXHUMATION OF MRS. SURRATT'S REMAINS.

In accordance with orders, Major Hill superintended the work of exhuming, which was done by a gang of several workmen, under the direction of Mr. Tatspaugh, one of the foremen. The grave or pit in which all the bodies were placed side by side is apparently about 18 feet long and 8 feet wide, and about 6 feet deep. The earth was soon thrown out and the coffin was taken up. In digging down, the coffin of Payne, which adjoined that of Mrs. Surratt, was disclosed. At three o'clock the coffin was taken out and handed over to Mr. Richard Harvey, undertaker.

The only persons present at the disinterment, beside the workmen, were Rev. Father Walter, of St. Patrick's church; Mr. Tenney, a friend of the family; Maj. Hill and Mr. Harvey. The box containing the remains was of rough pine boards. Upon the top was a strip of wood, painted white, with the name of "Mrs. Surratt" painted upon it in black letters.

The box was opened, and although the body was somewhat decomposed, it was not offensive. The dress, gaiters and black silk bow at the neck were all in a perfect state of preservation. The hair was also perfectly preserved, and did not seem to have been disarranged in the least. A steel arrow pin with which Annie Surratt fastened the bow about her mother's neck, just before she was led to execution, was also in place. A lock of the hair was clipped off for Annie Surratt at her own request. Upon examining Mrs. Surratt's feet it was discovered that the rope, with which her feet was tied just before the drop fell had disappeared, and this at first occasioned some remark, but those who witnessed the execution will remember that when Mrs. Surratt was cut down the rope became loosened and it was thrown aside.

The remains were immediately placed in another box and taken to Mount Olivet Catholic Cemetery, where the remains were placed in a vault. The remains will be to-morrow morning transferred to a new burial case. The transfer will be made in the presence of Minnie Surratt and her brother Isaac, and one or two intimate friends of the family. The remains will be interred in their final resting place at two o'clock. The ceremonies will consist only of reading of the burial service of the Catholic Church. Rev. Father Walter will officiate, and the ceremony will be conducted in strict privacy.

A review of Mrs. Surratt's conviction, sentence, death and burial may not be uninteresting at this time. It will be remembered she was convicted by the military commission of which General Hunter was president, at the arsenal, in the summer of 1865, of being one of the conspirators for the assassination of President Lincoln on the 14th of April of that year, and suffered death by hanging, in accordance with the sentence of the commission, in the arsenal grounds, on the 6th of July following.—Immediately after the execution, her remains, with those of Payne, Harold and Azzeroth, executed at the same time, were placed in common boxes and interred in graves near the scaffold, her body being at the north end of the row, and the others adjoining her remains in the order named above. In the box with each body there was also placed the name of the party, enclosed in a bottle.

EUGENIE'S CONFIDANTE

Madame Carette, nee Mlle. Bouvet, is the reader and confidante of the Empress Eugenie to whom she bears a very strong resemblance, although she looks more majestic and dignified than the Empress. For this reason the servants at the Tuileries call her the "Vice Empress." About a year ago Eugenie said to Mlle. Bouvet: Annette it is time for you to get married. I know a husband for you. It is M. de Grandguillot." M. de Grandguillot is one of the chamberlains at the Tuileries. The Empress added she would bestow adower upon Mlle. Bouvet if she would marry him. The fair reader blushed deeply, and, thanking her Majesty for her kindness, faltered out that she was already engaged. The Empress started back, exclaiming, "Mon Dieu, Annette, and you did not tell me. Who is your intended husband?" "It is M. Carette, the manufacturer." This M. Carette is a very wealthy man, and a most eligible match so the Empress at once congratulated Mlle. Bouvet on her good fortune, and generously offered to bestow the dower of 300,000 francs, as before proposed in regard to the other match, on her reader; M. Carette, however, would not accept it. In a private audience which the Empress granted him, he said he did not want any money. "But you must accept some favor at my hands," said the Empress. "Tiens," she added, "I shall make you my honorary chamberlain." "And I," said the Emperor, who was present, "will add the Cross of the Legion of Honor to the title. These will be our wedding gifts." "I thankfully accept them your Majesties," replied M. Carette.

TERRIFIC STORM.—A correspondent informs us that a tremendous storm of wind and rain passed over a portion of Russell county on Tuesday last, the 2d instant, doing great damage wherever its force was felt. On many farms houses were unroofed, trees uprooted, fences blown down, and not a stack of hay, oats, or fodder left standing. The farm of Col. R. E. Withers, near Rosedale, received a full benefit from the gale, more than a thousand panels of fencing and all his stacks of feed being prostrated. On the farm of Mr. Humphries, adjoining, a new story framed house, just covered in and partly weather-boarded, was blown down and completely demolished.—Fortunately no person was in at the time. The gale lasted for two hours, but the full accounts of the devastation caused by it had not been obtained when our informant's letter closed. We are glad to learn, however, that no lives were lost as far as is known.—Lynchburg News.

A TERRIBLE LEAP.—On Thursday last an insane man named Pierce, who had for some time previously suffered under a strong religious excitement, was seen to walk out on the Suspension bridge at Cincinnati and when he got to the middle to take off his coat and hat. A young man who saw him thought he was a workman, who was about to make some repairs, so cool and quiet was his actions. As soon as he had laid aside his coat, he passed outside the railing and immediately jumped into the river, which was running eighty-five feet below him. Strange to say, the fall did not injure him, and he began immediately to call for help, and at the same time to put out stoutly for the shore. But the current bore him steadily down the river, and he would undoubtedly have been drowned had it not been that some men were out in a skiff and rescued him.

LIFE INSURANCE.

THE KNICKERBOCKER

MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

OF NEW YORK.

Southern Branch, SAVANNAH, Ga.

A. WILBUN, Manager.
R. D. ARNOLD, Consulting Physician.

THE ONLY BRANCH OFFICE OF LIFE INSURANCE IN THIS SECTION WHERE POLICIES ARE ISSUED AND LOSSES PAID.

ASSETS NEARLY

$5,000,000.

ANNUAL INCOME NEARLY

$3,000,000.

Annual Dividends nearly 50 per cent.

$73,500 LOSSES PAID BY THE SOUTHERN BRANCH IN TWO YEARS.

THE KNICKERBOCKER IS AN OLD, RELIABLE Company, and offers as great inducements to insurers as any solvent Company can. Issues Policies on every desirable plan. Loans one-third of Premium to Policy-Holder.

All Policies non-forfeitable, as the insured can at any time, on demand, get its surrender value.

NO RESTRICTIONS ON RESIDENCE OR TRAVEL.

NO EXTRA CHARGE for OFFICERS of the ARMY or NAVY, Officers of first-class Steam or Sail Vessels, or Railroad Conductors, &c.

The "KNICKERBOCKER" is ONE of the TWO Northern Companies whose Policies in the South were kept intact during the entire Rebellion, whose Dividends were accredited to Policy Holders as though Premiums were paid.

And is THE Company that paid all losses after the war, that occurred during the war, thus proving its integrity, the honorable method of conducting its business, and its indisputable solvency.

The KNICKERBOCKER still pays all losses, never disputes a just claim, and is as liberal and SAFE as any Company in America.

Importance of Life Insurance.

Read another forcible illustration of how the CONNECTICUT MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY pays its losses:—

"Received, at Raleigh, N. C., Jan 28th, 1869, of S. D. Wail, General Agent of the Conn Mutual Life Ins Co., two thousand five hundred and forty five dollars, in full payment of Policy No. 84,031 and dividend on the life of my late husband, ——, and I hereby surrender all my right, title and interest in the same to said Company.
(Signed) ——— ———, of Newbern, N C."

We refrain from publishing the names of the parties, because we do not think it advisable to publish one's private business, but will state, although the party had not been insured quite five months, yet received a 50 per cent. dividend of $45 on the premium paid. The dividends of this Company have been larger than those of any other, averaging over 50 per cent. annually, from the beginning and the present dividend (Feb 1st, 1869,) exceeds the average. On this seventieth annual dividend the Directors have, besides declaring a 45 per cent. dividend upon the premium paid, declared a per centage dividend on the surplus reserve arising from interest which increases the policy holder's dividend annually, and on some policies pays over 70 per cent. this year. They have also adopted a reduced all-cash premium table with immediate annual dividends.

This Company is purely mutual; there are no Stockholders to absorb its earnings. It offers abundant security in a large accumulated fund of over TWENTY-THREE MILLIONS DOLLARS, derived alone from its business, and has $124 a year securely invested for every $100 of its liabilities. Its plans of business comprise all the desirable forms of insurance.

H. W. ST JOHN, Actuary.

SUMMARY OF BUSINESS FOR 1867

Total Assets, over	$10,000,000
Polices Insured in '67,	15,251
Am't Insured, nearly	$45,000,000
Policies Average "	3,000
Receipts for 1867,	5,129,447
Surplus for Dividends,	2,000,000

Dividend Fifty per cent.

Receipts for Interest Nearly Paid Its Losses.

It has $130 Assets for every $100 Liabilities.

Its premium receipts at the present time are nearly HALF A MILLION DOLLARS per month and are rapidly increasing.

The growth of the Ætna has never been equaled by any other Company whatsoever, in Europe or America.

Particular attention is called to the fact that while its business is increasing unprecedentedly, its ratio of expenses is comparatively small.

ECONOMY of management, CARE in the selection of risks, promptness in the payment of death claims, and security in the investment of its immense Trust Funds, are rigidly adhered to, and have ever characterized this Company.

The ÆTNA issues all the favorite kinds of Policies at the most favorable rates.

The ÆTNA issued last year more Endowment Insurances than any other Company.

The ÆTNA'S ratio of expenses, or cost of new business is less than any other Company whatsoever, and less than two-thirds of the average.

The ÆTNA is as liberal in permits to travel, in all parts of the world, as a sound discretion will warrant, and is much more liberal than any other prominent Company.

ANNUAL INCOME over $6,000,000.

The only Company that has the Low Participating Non-forfeitable Term Insurance with privilege of renewal. Ex. of rate at age 30 $14 67, which is nearly 40 per cent. lower than any other leading Company. Also Non-forfeiting cash rates with dividends on contribution plan and payable at the end of the first year.

Description of Policies.

First—Whole Life Policies,

Second—Endowment Policies, for terms of ten fifteen, twenty, twenty-five, thirty, and thirty-five years.

AGES.

Insurance will be granted at all ages from fifteen to sixty years.

PREMIUMS.

Premiums are payable annually during the continuance of the insurance, or annually during a period of five, ten, fifteen, or twenty years within the insurance term, or by single payment.

DIVIDENDS.

All Whole Life and Endowment Policies, issued at the rates published herewith, will participate in the surplus from the date of issue,

The dividends will be declared and paid annually upon the contribution plan, and may be applied as the assured shall elect, either to reduce future premiums, or to increase the Cash Value of the Policy.

If no election be made the dividends will be added to the Cash Values.

When, by adding the dividends to the Cash Value, the accumulations on any Policy shall have become sufficient to keep the same in force for its full amount, without further payments, the assured may, at his option, either continue payment of premiums and enlarge thereby the annual additions to its Cash Value—or discontinue them; and in either case, when the accumulations shall have become equal to the sum insured, the annual dividends on the Policy will be declared as a per centage of said sum and paid in cash, and upon surrender of said Policy the sum insured thereby will be paid in full, without regard to the time fixed therein for its payment.

The system of applying the dividends is peculiarly advantageous to the assured, securing, at an increased age, not only relief from further payment of premiums, but, at the same time, an annual income until death, unless he shall have previously received full payment of the Policy.

Dividends on paid-up Policies—that is, Policies which require no further payment of premium to continue them in force for the original amount of insurance—will be paid in cash upon demand.

NON-FORFEITURE RULES.

No whole Life or Endowment Policy, on which two or more annual cash premiums have been paid, shall be forfeited by failure to make further payment as stipulated therein, but will continue in force for the full amount which the Cash Value and dividends, then accumulated, will purchase, taken as a single net premium, upon the "Actuaries" rate of mortality and four per cent. interest; and the amount continued in force will generally exceed the aggregate of the payments actually made, extra charges excepted.

Nett Assets of the Company, July 1st, 1868, $330,942,96.

Insures lives, and promptly adjusts and pays losses. Its principal business is with Southern States, and to them it appeals for patronage. It has ample means to fully protect Policy holders and pay all losses.

The "Southern" combines the advantages of both note and cash system, stock and mutual—such as choose to pay cash may do so and secure a non-forfeitable policy and all the advantages of a Cash Company. The privilege of a permanent loan for one-third is granted to all who desire it.

It makes investments at home in good and reliable securities, thereby tending to make money more plenty in our midst, and to aid in developing the resources of our section and to stop the annual drain of over six Million dollars, which are being sent North for Life Insurance.

Its profits are equitably distributed among Policy holders and stockholders.

In its organization are presented men of experience in Life Insurance and their aim will be to make the "southern Life" the exponent of the business, enterprise and progress of the present day.

LIFE INSURANCE.

The Most Vigorous and the Most Liberal Insurance Company in the Country.

BROOKLYN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

141 Broadway, N. Y.

ASSETS OVER

$1,000,000!

CHRISTIAN W. BOUCK, ... President.
ABRAM D POLHEMUS ..... Vice President.
WILLIAM M. COLE ..... Secretary.
D. F. FACKLER ..... Consulting Actuary.
DANIEL AYRES, M. D. LL.D., Med. Examiner.

POLICIES ISSUED AS GOOD AS UNITED STATES BONDS.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE AS AT DEATH!

The BROOKLYN LIFE is the only Company in the country which guaranties a definite surrender-value to every Policy on which two or more annual premiums have been paid; this amount, in dollars and cents, is endorsed on every Policy issued, should any Policy-holder become unable to pay his premiums, he can thus know the cash worth of the Policy at any time after two annual premiums have been paid.

This certainly is the greatest inducement and most tangible advantage ever accorded to parties insuring their lives.

Among the advantages offered by the BROOKLYN, which thoroughly evince the determination of the officers to make it the most LIBERAL Life Insurance Company in the United States, are:

1st TOTAL REMOVAL OF ALL RESTRICTIONS ON TRAVEL AND RESIDENCE. The Assured may travel or reside anywhere they choose, the world over, without extra premium or special permit.

2d. A Loan of one-third of the Premium to the Policy-Holder Annually.

3d. All Policies are non-forfeitable after two full annual premiums have been paid.

4th. Rates as low as are consistent with financial soundness, and less than those of almost all Companies which accommodate their assured with loans.

5th. Dividends annually (after second year) in cash. Dividends are divided on the CONTRIBUTION PLAN—the only equitable manner of dividing the earnings of a Life Insurance Company. The CONTRIBUTION PLAN was first conceived by Mr. D. F. Fackler, now Actuary of this Company and has been adopted by most of the best managed Life Companies in this country.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid and now pays to its Policy-holders LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!

6th. Promptitude in paying losses.

7th. No charge for policy or stamp.

The success which the "BROOKLYN" has achieved, fully exemplified in its rapid and healthful growth, is a convincing proof of the confidence reposed by the public in its soundness, integrity and liberality.

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 1869.

DESPOTISM AND INIQUITY OF RECONSTRUCTION.

This will close Governor Worth's long, able and manly letter to President Johnson. The letter reflects much credit on the Governor as shame upon the President. Credit on the Governor, for it shows to the people that their confidence in him was not misplaced. It shows that he was not dead or insensible to the wrongs, indignities and oppressions which were heaped upon them. All he could do was to inform, expose, protest and remonstrate,—and this he did in a clear, bold, dignified and convincing manner.

The President could have given us relief, but he first began the oppression through Holden, as Provisional Governor, the man whom history will record as one of its meanest, smallest and most cowardly actors. When the President ceased to play the tyrant, Congress took up his own game, and beat him at it. Congress could beat the President at Reconstruction, because they used his own base experienced tools in the work, to-wit: Holden, Husmicut and Company. When Congress put the President to shame, at his own work, he feared to check them in their oppression of the South, lest they should impeach and depose him. Thus was the desolator desolate, and the victor overthrown. The architect of other's fate was supplicant for his own. This Reconstruction fruit we gathered was off the tree he planted.

"In wounds as sad we can but bleed,
He should have known what fruit would spring
From such a seed."

Extract from Gov. Worth's letter of Dec. 21, 1867, to the President of the United States.

CASE OF CARNEY SPEARS, OF COLOR.

At the Spring Term of Buncombe Superior Court, 1867, Judge Merrimon presiding, a negro named Carney Spears was convicted of an assault and battery on a white man named Cook. And at the same Term, the said Spears, under the advice of Colonel Henry, a leading Republican politician in that part of the State, submitted to a verdict of guilty on two indictments for horse stealing. The offences were committed about the close of the war. In consideration of the distracted condition of the times, the liability of his class to be misled, (he had white co-adjutors in the assault and battery case,) and his insolvency, the Solicitor for the State, Colonel Coleman, did not pray judgment, and it was suspended in all the cases, on condition of his securing the costs, one half payable at the Fall Term and the other half at the Spring Term following. By an arrangement between the negro and Nat. Atkinson, the latter came into court and confessed judgment for the costs. What the arrangement was between the negro and Atkinson was not known to the court or its officers.—Thereupon the negro was discharged from custody and went to work with Atkinson. In August last an officer of the Freedmen's Bureau, whose name is not furnished me, cited Atkinson and the negro to appear before Captain Denny, Commandant of the Post, who after hearing the statement of the negro setting forth that he had been wrongfully convicted, adjudged that the negro be discharged from his contract with Atkinson, and had an entry made on the docket of the Court, (a copy of which has not been furnished me,) suspending all action in the matter until the pleasure of Gen. Sickles could be known. Copies of the letters of Judge Merrimon, Col. Coleman the State Solicitor, and Mr. Atkinson, dated 9th August marked L. M. N. from which I gather these facts, accompany this narrative. I sent these letters to Gen. Sickles without delay, and to my great surprise, about the last of October I was furnished with Gen. Canby's special order No. 180, dated October 23rd, 1867, as follows: "The General commanding having become satisfied that no further action is necessary in the case of Carney Spears, a freedman, who was bound to work for one Nat Atkinson, until he, Spears, had paid in labor the costs of a criminal prosecution against him in the Superior Court of Buncombe County, North Carolina, it is ordered that the action of Capt. Denny, commanding station at Asheville N. C., annulling said contract, and releasing said Spears and said Atkinson from the fulfilment of the same, be confirmed, and notice of this action will be given to the parties concerned."

Col. Coleman and Judge Merrimon both resided in Asheville. No enquiry was made of either of them as to the trial by Capt. Denny or the Bureau man. Upon the ex-parte statement of the negro, convicted of two felonies by his own confession under the advice of his Republican Lawyer, he is in effect remitted of any punishment for his crimes or the payment of any costs; entries are made upon the records reversing the judgment of the Court by order of Gen. Canby's military subordinate, and this action is approved of by Gen. Canby. Gen. Canby's letter stating the grounds of his decision marked O—and my reply pointing out the absurdity of this decision marked P. are annexed; to which I have received no reply.

If the action of our Courts are to be thus treated, it were better that they should be totally abolished.

Solicitor Coseman has since been removed from office by Gen. Canby, for what alleged official delinquency or upon what evidence, I do not know. In the numerous removals from office I have heard of no instance where the officer has been informed, either before or after removal, for what reason or upon what evidence he was removed. The will of the military commandant is all he is allowed to know.

Legislature of North Carolina.

SENATE.

THURSDAY, Feb. 11, 1869.

Mr. Moore, of Carteret, from the Committee on Corpations, reported favorably on a bill in relation to municipal elections in certain towns.

A message was received from the House transmitting the following bills, &c., which were referred to appropriate Committees, viz:

Bill to amend title 6, section 68 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

Bill to transfer to the County of Montgomery a certain portion of the Fayetteville and Albemarle Plank Road.

Resolution in favor of the Sheriff of Cleaveland County.

Resolution in favor of A. L. Partin, of Macon County.

Resolution in favor of J. K. Smith, of Wayne County.

Bill to allow the Commissioners of the town of Rutherfordton to levy taxes for certain purposes.

Bill to incorporate New Hanover Agricultural Society.

Resolution in favor of J. L. Moore, of Macon county.

Resolution concerning lands owned by the State.

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS.

By Mr. Martindale: A bill to tax railroad tickets five cents, on each ticket sold, to pay the interest on the State debt. Referred to the Committee on Finance.

By Mr. Cook: A bill to incorporate the Lockville Manufacturing Company. Referred to the Committee on Corporations.

By Mr. Long: A bill to incorporate the town of Lexington. Referred to the Committee on Corporations.

THIRD READING OF BILLS.

Bill to amend section 3, chapter 39 of the Revised Code, in regard to obtaining divorce. Rejected. On motion the vote was reconsidered.

Bill relating to special procedure in cases of mills, passed.

Leave of absence was granted Messrs. Winstead, Barrow, Colgrove and White.

SPECIAL ORDER.

Bill to construct a Turnpike Road in Carteret county, through the lands belonging to the Literary Board, numerous amendments were offered and considerable discussion arose, on a motion of Mr. Bellamy to refer to the Committee on Education, upon which he called the previous question, the call was sustained and the motion was lost.

Mr. Robbins proposed an amendment.

Mr. Moore, of Carteret, raised the point that the previous question having been called on the main question, the amendment was not in order.

The President, (Mr. Brogden in the Chair) ruled that the amendment was in order, the previous question having been called on the motion to refer and not on the original bill.

Mr. Moore of Carteret appealed from the decision of the Chair. When on motion the Senate adjourned until to morrow at 10 o'clock.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

THURSDAY, Feb. 11, 1869.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

Mr. Mendenhall from the Committee on Education, reported favorably upon the bill to provide for a system of public instruction. The bill was ordered to be printed.

A message was received from the Senate transmitting the following bills and resolutions, asking the concurrence of the House, viz:

Bill to incorporate the Yellow Mountain Bridge Co.

Bill to prescribe the power and duty of the Governor in respect to fugitives from justice.

Bill to incorporate the North Carolina Purchase and Trust Association.

Bill to incorporate the Raleigh Cemetery Association.

Bill to incorporate the International Commercial Company of Norfolk, Va.

Resolution in relation to a Joint Committee to consider the erection of a State prison.

Another message was received from the same body informing the House of the passage of the following House bills, to wit:

Bill to protect cattle from distemper and other infectious diseases.

Bill to change the time of holding the Courts in the tenth, eleventh and twelfth Judicial Districts.

The bills were ordered to be engrossed for ratification.

Mr. Hinsdale presented bill from the Code Commission to provide for procedure in special proceedings generally, and in application for widows' yearly support and in dower. Referred.

SPECIAL ORDER.

The various bills submitted by the Code Commission.

The bill to amend chapter 40 Revise Code was taken up. The amendment reported by the Judiciary Committee, to whom the bill was referred, was adopted and the bill was ordered to be printed.

On motion of Mr. Ingram, the rules were suspended and the bill authorizing elections in certain towns on the second Monday in April, that failed to hold them at the proper time, was taken up, amended so as to read the fourth Monday in May, or with in ten days thereafter, and passed its third readings.

Leave of absence was granted to Messrs. Allison, Grier, Graham, Long, of Richmond, and McMillan.

Mr. Seymour, from the Committee on the Judiciary, reported upon several bills, which were placed upon the calendar.

On motion of Isham Sweat, colored, the rules were suspended and he was allowed to withdraw from the calendar a bill in relation to the law of evidence, introduced some time ago by himself.

The consideration of the Code Commission bills was resumed and the bill to declare persons of color competent to testify in all cases, considered.

J. S. Leary, colored, and Isham Sweat, colored, opposed the bill, on the ground that it was useless, as the Civil Rights Bill and the Constitution of the State obliterated all such laws as prohibited persons of color from enjoying all the rights that any other class of citizens enjoyed. The passage of such a bill would imply that old laws making distinctions on account of color and race were still in force, &c.

Messrs. Seymour, Pou, Harris, of Wake, colored, favored the bill, because it merely repealed a law placed upon the statute books when distinction on account of race and color were always made.

Mr. Malone said that the Chief Justice had decided that, as the law now stood, colored persons were not competent in all cases to testify, and that a refusal would have the effect to transfer the particular suit to the Federal Courts, according to a requirement of Congress. So various amendments were offered and adpted, and amongst them the following by Mr. Malone, as section 3 of the bill:

That hereafter, it shall not be lawful for co-defendants in criminal cases to be allowed to testify for or against each other on the trial for any criminal charge. Adopted.

The bill then passed its second reading. On motion, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its third reading, by a vote of yeas 60, nays 13.

On motion of Mr. Sinclair, the rules were suspended, and Senate bill prescribing the power and duty of the Governor in respect to fugitives from justice was taken up and made the special order for to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock.

On motion, the House adjourned until to-morrow morning, at 10 o'clock.

NOTE—Mr. Argo said when the ballot was taken upon the bill allowing colored persons to testify in all cases, that he regarded this bill as no political question, but one intimately concerning the administration of justice, therefore he voted aye.

NEGRO SUFFRAGE.

The New York Herald believes, that the majority of the Northern people and Legislatures is opposed to universal suffrage, and expresses the decided opinion that three-fourths of the Legislatures of the Union cannot be brought to sanction the amendment, should Congress submit it to them. In an able article upon the subject, the Herald says:

"Unconditional negro suffrage is what the white population of the South are apprehending. Gen. Grant may not be called upon either to oppose or approve it. It may be taken out of his hands altogether. There is ample reason to doubt whether the proposed amendment to the constitution called the fourteenth article, providing for indiscriminate suffrage—niggers, Chinese, coolies, digger Indians and all the rest of the ballot forsaken portion of creation—will be adopted by the required constitutional majority—three fourths of all the States. The West does not seem disposed to bow down to it. Witness the fiasco the inauguration ball, where, because it was placarded by Western men, "no niggers admitted," some Eastern nigger worshipers split off and would have nothing to do with the affair. The West has ineffaceable prejudice against negro equality. United with the South and such of the Northern States as are opposed to negro equality the majority necessary to adopt the fifteenth amendment cannot be secured. And upon a question of negro equality or no negro equality placed distinctly before the whole people we are firm in the conviction that the affirmative would be voted down by an overwhelming majority. The sentiment of our population is undoubtedly in favor of still reserving to the several States those rights affecting social and domestic relations which but few despotic powers on earth have succeeded in usurping and controlling against the will of the people."

ROBBERY—COWARDLY ATTACK.—Last Monday morning about 3 o'clock, a cowardly attack was made on Mr. Ezra Thomas, who resides in Brunswick County, not more than seven or eight miles distant from this city. Two negroes knocked at his house door, and represented themselves as on an errand for Mr. Taylor. Mr. Thomas opened the door, and so soon as ingress was possible, the robbers knocked him down, pursued this assault with blows, and commenced a search of his person. The powerless victim screamed murder, his heroic wife responded to his call by catching one of the negroes by the wool, and clinging to him until he struck her a stunning blow on the neck. During this time, Mr. Thomas had firmly held to his pocket book, and was only induced to release it by receiving, from a sharp instrument, a wound considerable in length though shallow in depth. The pocket book contained over one hundred dollars, and was carried away by the murderous robbers, who departed after having severely beaten Mr. Thomas, leaving him in a painful, though not serious condition, while his wife suffered equally as much from the blows that she received.

This is the second robbery committed at Mr. Thomas' expense within the last few months, and he has our warm sympathies for his misfortunes. The negroes are still free to pursue their lawlessness, but we hope ere many suns set, their career will be closed by the strong arm of the law, or, if necessary, by the determined hand of self protection.—Wil. Star.

MEXICO.

Capture of Highway Robbers—Conspiracy to Rob a Mint—Heavy Floods—Great Destruction of Property.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 8.—The Steamer John L. Stevens, with Mazatlan advices to January 21st, has arrived. She brings 125,000 Mexican dollars.

General Gutierrez, a bandit, has been captured and imprisoned at Durango. A number of highway robberies have been committed in that vicinity. Two officers, supposed to be his accomplices, were arrested at Matzalan. Five thousand dollars in coin and a quantity of valuable jewelry was recovered.

A conspiracy to rob a mint of $20,000, was frustrated by the authorities.

Heavy rains prevailed throughout the State. The Sinaloa rivers overflowed, inundating the country, and destroying several villages entirely, and extensively damaging many others.

The loss of life is not known, though it is thought to have been large. Of one family, not a soul escaped. The people sought the highlands and hill-tops for safety, where they were rescued by boats.

There is very great suffering in consequence of the flood, among the poorer classes. On account of the destruction of the new crops, high prices prevail.

The United States steamers Resaca and Mazatlan are in port at Mazatlan.

DIRTY BIRDS.

A late telegram to the Chicago Times thus refers to the new programme:

"Every petty officer in Virginia who does not give in his adhesion to it, is to be removed in thirty days. The hope is by dividing the Southern people and creating bitter feuds among them, to make them finally an easy prey."

Upon which the Times indites the subjoined comment:

"The Radicals, having thus far failed in their efforts to 'reconstruct' the South, are said to have determined upon a new course. Putting negroes and carpet-baggers in the background, they propose to make 'scalawags'—as renegade Southerners are termed—the instruments of forcing the ex-confederate States into the ranks of Radicalism. Every effort is to be made to seduce Southern whites into the support of the Republican party,—bribery being the chief means to be employed in obtaining that end. 'It is a dirty bird that fouls its own nest;' and the Radicals hope to secure in the South enough 'dirty birds' to pollute the whole section."

A "wonder on four legs" has arrived in Louisville from the Cumberland mountains. It is about two feet in height, and might be mistaken for a fawn at a distance. Its colors are dark gray and pure white, its legs and face being more or less spotted. It is a female, has the nose of a sheep, is knock kneed, has crooked hind legs, flat shoulders, large heavy ears, and a tolerably long, bushy tail. Its feet resemble those of a sheep. When standing naturally there is a hump on its back, and it would be a success as a camel were it only tall enough. It subsists on food similar to that provided for sheep. Its nature seems very docile, though it will sometimes jump at strangers. When captured it was swimming Kentucky river, and swam very rapidly.

THE SOUTH'S MEANS OF RECOVERY.

There is food for thought to the people of the South, as well as of the North, in the following warning given to the latter by the New York Democrat:

A few years ago New York received forty times as much cotton as Baltimore.—Last year it has received only nine times as much. This fact is terribly suggestive to Northern merchants and capitalists. It is also suggestive to the Southern people, who may discover in it a sure way to pay off the debt of revenge which every true Southern man is supposed to owe us, for all the horrid abominations of the negro war. Suppose the Southern people should resolve, with entire unanimity, to trade no more with the North—that they should make Baltimore and Norfolk, and Savannah, and other Southern ports the depots of all their trade with Europe and the wide world—what then would become of our commerce? Where will Boston, New York, Philadelphia, and the lesser cities of the North find the great staples of commerce, which have hitherto employed more than two-thirds of our shipping and of our mechanical industry? The South has only to establish a direct trade with the Old World, to strip the North, for all time, of two-thirds of its commerce; and then half of the other third may be diverted from the North or East, by a railroad communication between Norfolk, Virginia, and the great West. With such a Railroad Norfolk would be a far more natural and convenient entrepot for all the Western and European trade than New York. That the South has this game in its hands, it it chooses to play it, no one will doubt. And, therefore, every hour the Northern people permit this horrid congressional prosecution of the Southern people, they are establishing the strongest possible motives for their own ruin. As it is, a Southern man who trades a single dollar with Boston must be a sneak. How much better would he be for trading with Philadelphia? It is not common for human nature to seek to strengthen the hand that smites it. The very wealth of New York, which enabled it to furnish money to Lincoln, to carry on the war, was, two thirds of it at least, derived from the trade of the South. If the South had, twenty years ago, established direct trade with Europe for all her staples, the North would never have acquired the wealth and power to subjugate the Southern States, and, altogether we have pinned those States with our armies, although we have burnt their fences, rifled their parlors, stolen their horses, destroyed their implements of husbandry, and murdered their population, the soil that has produced more than two-thirds of all the export wealth of the United States still remains. Thank God we could neither steal nor burn that!

From the National Intelligencer.

DARING OUTRAGE AT THE RESIDENCE OF MARSHAL BROWN—THE ROBBERS SECRET THEMSELVES IN THE HOUSE.

On Saturday evening last the palatial residence of Marshall Brown, Esq., corner of I street north and First street west, was the scene of a brilliant reception, and the parlors were graced with a host of the elite of Washington society. The spacious ball room connected with the residence was used during the evening for the "German," and about half past ten o'clock a sumptuous repast was served in the dining room hall.

While the guests were enjoying the pleasures of the dance, there were parties in the house availing themselves of the freedom of the premises, inspecting the different apartments, with the intention of dispossessing Mr. Brown of everything valuable. It is needless to say they were not among the "invited guest."

The party ended about half-past eleven o'clock, and the servants were busily engaged until past midnight in cleaning and removing the valuable silver plate which adorned the supper table. While they were thus employed, several gentlemen sat in the library room smoking, but by one o'clock everybody belonging in the house had retired. Yesterday morning, when Mr. Brown awoke, he found that his pants were gone, and, on further examination, that his valuable gold watch was missing. The servants, when they got up, found the gas lighted throughout the house, and the rear entrance door open, the bolt having been pried off on the inside. Mr. Brown found his clothing in the hall way, minus $240 in greenbacks. A gentleman stopping with Mr. Brown's son was also robbed of a gold watch. A valuable set of pearl jewelry belonging to Mrs. Brown was also taken away by the thieves. The value of the articles missed, together with the money, is about $1,000—a small amount compared with what might have been taken, had the burglars not been frightened away.

The front door of the residence is secured in such a manner that it would have been useless to have attempted an exit from that part of the house; while the breaking of the lock on the door in the basement, shows that the parties were secreted in the house when it was fastened up at midnight.

The room of Mr. Wallach was locked and bolted on the inside, but no attempt was made to enter.

It is evident that the "job" was put up by experienced hands; and the fact of the robbery being committed at such a time, when there was the best opportunity of gaining access to the valuables, and the advantage of working while the inmates were likely to be sound asleep, should warn our citizens against any further attempts of a similar character.

SOUTHERN CAUCUS.

A caucus of Southern Senators was held on Friday night to secure united action on several matters relating to the South. One is to secure the Federal offices or prevent confirmation of others. Another is to talk over railroad matters and to conoine to carry through their local schemes, together with the new bill of the combined Pacific railroad companies. A third, and the one under discussion, was a plan to insist on payment of salaries for the full period of the Fortieth Congress, and block legislation on some vital measure, if necessary, until the demand is complied with. Before any conclusion was arrived at the caucus was broken up by the Sergeant-at arms of the Senate, in search of absent Senators to secure a quorum for the evening session of the Senate.—Intelligencer.

PARDON FOR SPANGLER.—A petition, unanimously signed by the most prominent officials of Baltimore, and influential and respectable citizens of Maryland, asking the pardon of Spangler, one of the prisoners confined at Dry Tortugas for complicity in the assassination of Mr. Lincoln, has been presented to the President. It is signed by between one and two hundred gentlemen, including the Mayor of Baltimore, judges of the Supreme bench, Superior bench, clerks of the several courts of Baltimore, sheriff, members of the City Council, &c.—The President has the case under advisement, and it is believed that the conclusive argument of the petitioners will prevail with him, and that Spangler will be pardoned.

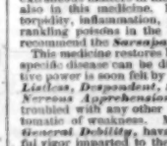
Ayer's Sarsaparilla,
FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.



The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are of a truly marvellous character. Inveterate cases of Scrofula, where the system seemed utterly given up to corruption, have yielded to this compound of anti-strumous virtues. Disorders of a scrofulous type, and affections which are merely aggravated by the presence of scrofulous matter, have been radically cured in such numerous instances, in every settlement in the country, that the public do not need to be informed here that it is in most cases a specific and absolute remedy.

Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of enfeebling or fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develop into one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, tumors formed in the liver. These facts make the occasional use of the Sarsaparilla as a preventive, invaluable.

It is a mistake to suppose that so long as no eruptions or humors appear, there must be no scrofulous taint. These forms of derangement may never occur, and yet the vital forces of the body be so reduced by its subtle agency, as materially to impair the health and shorten the duration of life. It is a common error, also, that scrofula is strictly hereditary. It does, indeed, descend from parent to child, but is also engendered in persons born of pure blood. Low living, indigestion, foul air, licentious habits, uncleanliness, and the depressing vices generally, produce it. Weakly constitutions, where not fortified by the most constant and judicious care, are peculiarly liable to it. Yet the robust, also, whose turbid blood swells the veins with an apparently exuberant vitality, are often contaminated, and on the road to its consequences. Indeed, no class or condition can depend on immunity from it, nor feel insensible to the importance of an effectual remedy.

In St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, for Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes and Ears, and other eruptive or visible forms of the diseases caused primarily by the scrofulous infection, the Sarsaparilla is so efficient as to be indispensable. And in the more concealed forms, as in Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and other affections of the muscular and nervous systems, the Sarsaparilla, through its purifying power, removes the cause of the disorder and produces astonishing cures.

The sarsaparilla root of the tropics does not by itself achieve these results. It is aided by the extracts combined with it, of still greater power. So potent is this union of healing virtues, Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing these obstinate maladies by any medicine. Leucorrhœa or Whites, Uterine Ulcerations, and Female Diseases in general, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by the invigorating and purifying effect of our Sarsaparilla. Rheumatism and Gout, often dependent on the accumulations of extraneous matters in the blood, have their remedy also in this medicine. For Liver Complaints, torpidity, inflammation, abcess, etc., caused by rankling poisons in the blood, we unhesitatingly recommend the Sarsaparilla.

This medicine restores health and vigor where no specific disease can be distinguished. Its restorative power is soon felt by those who are Languid, Listless, Despondent, Sleepless, and filled with Nervous Apprehensions or Fears, or who are troubled with any other of those affections symptomatic of weakness. Many, after taking it for General Debility, have written us of the wonderful vigor imparted to their nervous system, which seemed buoyant with that prolific life they thought had departed on the advance of age. Others, whose fountains of life were always sterile, acknowledge their obligations to it for an obvious change.

Ayer's Ague Cure,

For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

As its name implies, it does Cure, and does not fail. Containing neither Arsenic, Quinine, Bismuth, Zinc, nor any other mineral or poisonous substance whatever, it in nowise injures any patient. The number and importance of its cures in the ague districts, are literally beyond account, and we believe without a parallel in the history of medicine. Our pride is gratified by the acknowledgments we receive of the radical cures effected in obstinate cases, and where other remedies had wholly failed.

Unacclimated persons, either resident in, or travelling through miasmatic localities, will be protected by taking the AGUE CURE daily.

For Liver Complaints, arising from torpidity of the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the Liver into healthy activity.

To the People of the Southern States.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3, 1868.

When the pure medicinal restorative, now so widely known as Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps, was introduced into the world under the endorsement of four thousand leading members of the medical profession some 20 years ago, its proprietor was well aware that it could not wholly escape the penalty attached to all new and useful preparations. He, therefore, endeavored to invest it with strongest possible safeguard against counterfeiters, and to render all attempts to pirate it difficult and dangerous. It was submitted to distinguished chemists for analysis, and pronounced by them the purest spirit ever manufactured. Its purity and properties having been thus ascertained, samples of the article were forwarded to ten thousand physicians, including all the leading practitioners in the United States, for purposes of experiment. A circular, requesting a trial of the preparation and a report of the result, accompanied each specimen. Four thousand of the most eminent medical men in the Union promptly responded. Their opinions of the article were unanimously favorable. Such a preparation, they said, had long been wanted by the profession, as no reliance could be placed on the ordinary liquors of commerce, all of which were more or less adulterated, and therefore unfit for medical purposes. The peculiar excellence and strength of the oil of juniper, which formed one of the principal ingredients of the Schnapps, together with an unalloyed character of the alcoholic element, give it, in the estimation of the faculty, a marked superiority over every other diffusive stimulant as a diuretic, tonic and restorative.

Among satisfactory credentials from professional men of the highest rank were published in a condensed form, and enclosed with each bottle of the Schnapps, as one of the guarantees of its genuineness. Other precautions against fraud were also adopted; a patent was obtained for the article, the label was copyrighted, a fac simile of the proprietor's autograph signature was attached to each label and cover, his name and that of the preparation were embossed on the bottles, and the corks were sealed with his private seal. No article had ever been sold in this country under the name of schnapps prior to the introduction of Wolfe's Schiedam schnapps, in 1851; and the label was deposited, as the trade mark, in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York during that year.

It might be supposed by persons unacquainted with the daring character of the pirates who prey upon the reputation of honorable merchants by vending deleterious trash under their name, that the protections so carefully thrown around these schnapps would have precluded the introduction and sale of counterfeits. They seem, however only to have stimulated the rapacity of impostors. The trade mark of the proprietor was stolen; the inducements which his Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps alone received from the medical profession has been claimed by mendacious humbugs; his labels and bottles have been imitated, his advertisements paraphrased, his circulars copied, and worse than all, dishonorable retailers, after disposing of the genuine contents of his bottles, have filled them up with common gin, the most deleterious of all liquors, and thus made his name and brand a cover for poison.

The public, the medical profession and the sick for whom the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps is prescribed as a remedy, are equally interested with the proprietor in the detection and suppression of these nefarious practices. The genuine article, manufactured at the establishment of the undersigned, in Schiedam, Holland, is distilled from a barley of the finest quality, and flavored with an essential extract of the berry of the Italian juniper, of unequaled purity. By a process unknown to the proprietors of any other liquor, it is freed from every acrimonious and corrosive element.

Complaints have been received from the leading physicians and families in the Southern States of the sale of cheap imitations of the Schiedam Aromatic schnapps in those markets; and travellers, who are in the habit of using it as an antidote to the baneful influence of unwholesome river water, testify that cheap gin, put up in Schiedam bottles, is frequently palmed off upon the unwary. The agents of the undersigned have been requested to institute inquiries on the subject, and to forward to him the names of such parties as they may ascertain to be engaged in the atrocious system of deception. In conclusion, the undersigned would say that he has produced, from under the hands of the most distinguished men of science in America, proofs unanswerable of the purity and medicinal excellence of the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps; that he has expended many thousand dollars in surrounding it with guarantees and safeguards, which he designed should protect the public and himself against fraudulent imitations; that he has shown it to be the only liquor in the world that can be uniformly depended upon as unadulterated; that he has challenged investigation, analysis, comparison, and experiment in all its forms; and from every ordeal the preparation which bears his name, seal and trademark, has come off triumphant. He therefore feels it a duty he owes to his fellow-citizens generally, to the medical profession and the sick, to denounce and to expose the charlatans who counterfeit these evidences of identity and he calls upon the press and the public to aid him in his efforts to remedy so great an evil.

The following letters and certificates from the leading physicians and chemists of this city will prove to the reader that all goods sold by the undersigned are all they are represented to be.

UDOLPHO WOLFE.

I feel bound to say, that I regard your Schnapps as being in every respect pre-eminently pure, and deserving of medical patronage. At all events, it is the purest possible article of Holland Gin, he

THE TABLEAUX.—We have noticed the success of the young ladies, in a former number of our paper, and it would seem quite out of place to discriminate, in speaking of the fair performers, on the evening of Wednesday, when it is conceeded that all did well; but, we will be excused, we trust, by doing simple justice, and nothing more, to the exquisite rendition of "Capt. Jinks," by Mrs McCleery. We have heard "Capt. Jinks" oft-times, by both professional and amateurs; but until Wednesday evening, to our mind, have we ever heard it to that degree of perfection as attained by the fascinating lady, above alluded to. The audience were completely enraptured; nor could they be quieted until Mrs. C. had repeated it three times.

"Down by the River side," was also sung by the same lady, to the great delight of the audience.

We trust that our fair friends will soon again, prepare another such feast for our citizens.

The young ladies, we are authorized to say, thank Mr. G. W. Fentress, for the material aid which he rendered them.

TUCKER HALL TO-NIGHT—MORGAN AND HIS UNRIVALLED TROUPE.—By reference to advertisement, it will be seen that Morgan and his inimitable corps of vocalists will give two of their grand entertainments in this City, commencing to-night. The Newbern papers speak in the highest terms of praise of their performances in that city, and we are glad our citizens will have an opportunity of witnessing an exhibition of high order, as we are assured this will be. The Journal of Commerce says of them:

"The Morgan Troupe performed at the Theatre last night, to a large and appreciative audience. Those present were, for the most part, capable of deciding as to the merits or demerits of the performance. The decision was highly favorable to the troupe, judging from the thunders of applause that greeted the conclusion of each separate piece. Mr. Morgan exhibited much musical talent; but we liked his rendition of "the "Lament of the Irish Emigrant" and "Let all Obey," more than any other of his solos, owing to the fact that more depth of feeling was exhibited in them. All of his parts, however, were most happily and harmoniously rendered. The Cleveland sisters were perfect in their parts, and the encomiums of the audience were freely lavished upon them. Miss Lizzie sang charmingly, while Miss Mollie was perfectly irresistible in her character songs. Her "Grecian Bend" brought down the house, and the beautiful pathos with which she sung "Nobody's Child" thrilled the auditory.—Prof. Pierce showed much knowledge of the piano, and all did well."

OUR townsman, W. F. Askew, Esq., has returned from Kentucky, and informs us, that he has on the way, to arrive in a few days, about one hundred and twenty young mules, all well broken to harness. Their arrival will be announced.

STEAM FIRE ENGINE—We heartily second the praises bestowed by a city cotemporary upon Capt. John L. Boatwright, for the zeal and successful energy displayed by that gentleman in securing subscriptions for the purchase of a steam fire engine.—We would add our sense of the credit which attaches itself to him, and feel assured that the success of this movement is due in very great part to the efforts of this gentleman. We are now near the purchase of a machine of this character, and it has not yet touched a cent in the public coffers to accomplish it.—Wil. Journal.

It is time steps were taken to purchase a steam engine for Raleigh. Have we a Boatwright in our midst who will take the matter in hand and "push" it until we have ample means with which to fight the devouring elements. The machines, or rather "squirts," now used on the occasion of a fire, are exceedingly trifling, and answer a miserable purpose. Try it, somebody, and secure the everlasting thanks of the public.

OXFORD, February 9, 1869.

Hon. R. W. Lassiter, Senator from Granville and Colleague of Cuffee Mayo:

DEAR SIR:—I beg your favorable interpretation of my long silence. I have been engaged in a public business which required my whole attention, and therefore you will not think me negligent of that attention which was due to you and your last kildee letter. I have been engaged in exposing the frauds and corruptions by which the people are to be oppressed with taxation, and the public Treasury robbed by a corrupt system of legislation hitherto unknown in North Carolina. Everything seems to be done in fraud, and with a view to swindle.

But enough of that just here. I promised in a former letter, you having been displeased at the light estimate put upon your land, that Levy Blankenship, at your February Court, should, with twenty men, value your land sold to the Editor of the Standard, Milton Littlefield, and their estimate of its value should be published.

I am here, as you will see, from the date of my letter, but Cuffee Mayo is not here.—Cuffee is indicted for larceny in stealing a pistol. He failed to appear at the last Court. He fails now to appear. He plea is his privilege, from arrest, he being a member, or, more properly speaking, one of the hands of the House.

Gen. Cox, the Solicitor, informs me that the Grand Jury of Wake presented the Editor of the Standard, Milton Littlefield, and others, for "corruption." No bills were drawn upon these presentments, we suppose, for want of time. The public will regret that Judge Watts did not prolong his Court until midnight on Saturday, instead of adjourning on Thursday, as he did; they will look with some interest in the matter of Cuffee Mayo's privilege of stealing and pleading his membership as an excuse for non-appearance at Court.

A proper regard for decency requires that leave of absence should be given to your "honorable" friend and colleague, and that he be required to make his personal appearance at this court to answer the charge of larceny.

Where is the decency of your party and your Legislature, that they don't give him leave of absence, and require him to purge himself before the court now in session;—at the peril of being expelled from the House? But enough of this. Cuffee must not think me his enemy. He is as much, yea, more entitled to respectful consideration, than many of his more intelligent white political associates of the bread and butter class of politicians of the day, who now fill, in a low manner, high stations in the government. But, to the land and its value. I stated as I heard, that you sold your land for 7,000 dollars at 20 dollars an acre. This you denied in such a way, as to impress the public with the belief that you had not sold your land at all, to the Editor of the Standard. Yet, you did sell him land, and you knew it to be so, when you denied it.

I called at the Register's office; he said the deed was not of record. I then made inquiry, and I learn that you sold the Editor of the Standard, and Attorney of the Chatham Railroad, 150 acres of the tract, known as "The Folly," for 3,000 dollars, it being 20 dollars an acre.

Levy Blankenship declined to act as Chairman of the Committee of Valuation, because of the personal relations existing between you and himself. He said, to use his own language, your land was not worth a "dried apple d—n;" but, if he were on the Committee, you would have reason to complain. So he called aloud, in the midst of a thousand or twelve hundred men, for all who knew "The Folly," or kildee ranch, to come up and say what it was worth.

Cannon Hopkins was first questioned: What would you give for the land? He swore he would not have it, and no man could give it to him, unless he would find stamps to go upon the deed, and pay for Registering.

One man said, it was worth 75 cents an acre.

J. N. Fuller said, he tried to ride over the land, and he had to turn back because of the deep gullies, which his horse was not able to jump, some of them being eight or ten feet wide, and deep in proportion.

Your neighbour, Blankenship then called up Alexander and Grandy Lassiter, your former slaves. Old Grandy said, he'd tell no lie about it; "when master first bied de lan it wornt worf a kildee, he wouldn't give a kildee for it, but now it was valerble land, master had proved it with guanno, and you may hush your mouth laughing at it, Ellick, corroborated Grandy, that it was "valable" land but neither could be brought to say how much it was worth per acre.

Daniel Paschal denied hearing "The Folly" grunt to sprout peas—but said, one of the Fuller's did. He acknowledged having once owned the land; that he did say, after sprouting or grubbing, it should rest two years before cultivating it. Here the progress of the Committee was interrupted by your colleague "Honest" John Ragland's mounting the stump and harranguing the multitude.

Blankenship stepped into Reavis' for a drink, which much augmented his zeal in doing justice to your land. Rushen demanded of "honest" John, on the stump, what he knew of the kildee ranch.

John said, he did not like to be interrupted in his discourse, for he wanted to tell the natives, white and black, that they must cut loose from the carpet-bagger, or they would be ruined,—that the carpet-baggers were legislating for their own good, and not the good of the country. He could say this about the land, when a boy he saw the timber cut from it. When a tree would fall, the body did not touch the ground; the limbs or branches of the blackjacks so elevated the body that the tree was actually higher, after it was felled, than before.

After leaving the stump, "honest" John was heard to say, Sephus Hudson had lived on the land until the old man was reduced to a shadow; and this, it seems, is true. I have known Sephus Hudson for sixteen years or more.

An old man approached me on the Court green who shook hands cordially, and when he discovered I did not recognize him, he announced his name as Sephus Hudson. I apologised for not recognizing him, and said, living on the kildee purchase had greatly reduced him. Yes, said the old man, "played h—ll with, and pretty nigh shut me out the gates of life." Sephus denied that there were any squirrels on the land, and said he had never seen but two on the land in his life. Blankenship said, poor hungry things, they had cried themselves to death before Sephus went there; Sephus denied that he could reach a squirrel in your loftiest timber—but he said the old Secretary of State,—Best, could.

I have, so far as I can, corrected all the errors into which others have led me with regard to your land. I take this occasion to say, I was mistaken as to the squirrels—for there are none on the land. I was misinformed as to the number of acres sold, the sale being for 3,000 instead of 7,000 dollars. And now, having made amends, by correcting all wrongs and mistakes, let me subscribe myself, as I am yours in everything loyal—except the Penitentiary fraud,

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr.

P. S. The Governor is improving. In a former letter I told you hunting a dog I found the Governor in a grog-shop drinking by himself. That, you know, is a Massachusetts treat, and no man stands well at the bar who is guilty of such conduct. Two weeks after that, I heard of the Governor in the grog shop again, but he went with Company. He never treated, but it was an improvement, going with Company.

Tell the Lieut. Governor to speak to the Governor, either to quit the grog shops, or the Executive Chair. He is the only Governor the people of North Carolina ever saw in a grog shop. It is an evil example to set his son Joseph, the Speaker of the House and overseer of the hands. As proof of it, Joseph has broken his Temperance pledge since I wrote you last.

I speak now for the respectable negroes, who do not go to grog shops: Lex. Long, the barber, Handy Locket, the undertaker, Henry Jett, Col. Polk's old body servant, voted for the Governor. These respectable freedmen would be gratified at the Governor's abandonment of grog shops. Let him agree with his son Joseph, and Coleman, the Attorney General, that neither will frequent such places, and all three will be more respected and better qualified for the discharge of their public duties.

For the Sentinel.

MR. EDITOR:—Knowing the wide circulation of your paper, I would like to correct some errors in a communication written by a fair correspondent of this place, in regard to our town. We think any one on reading this article would be apt to recall to mind Goldsmith's Deserted Village. In the first place, we have a very flourishing male school under the supervision of competent and highly educated instructors. Our College has opened under very favorable auspices, its President being one of the most accomplished and intelligent gentlemen of the State. We think our correspondent must have taken a stroll to the village on one of our dark days, perhaps saturday, (which is considered a darkest day with us.) But I do not think it probable we would have found our merchants "drumming" on that particular day, as they generally try to keep both eyes open on such occasions. Upon almost any other day of the week, instead of seeing "mules standing idle on the street," you will see them drawing wagons heavily laden with cotton bales on their way to market. We appreciate the good motive of Miss Lucie, and go heart and hand with her so far as the Railroad is concerned, but think she is liable to defeat her object in her description of our place. Our wise Legislators, I fear, would think it too insignificant for a Railroad to pass within its limits, or to locate a Penitentiary near it, regarding it as even too poor to support kildees and squirrels.

JUSTICE.

[From the Cleveland Plaindealer.]

A RADICAL paper at Philadelphia is very savage on Kilpatrick. It appears that he was invited to deliver his lecture on "Sherman's March Through Georgia" for the benefit of the Twenty first Ward soldiers' monument of that city. The paper proceeds to denounce him as an "oratorical jobber" because he refused to deliver the address at half price. We quote from the paper:

"The avarice of the man is so thoroughly scouted and ground in his character, that he has insisted upon receiving $200 for delivering this discourse. As the expenses of the association in arranging for the lecture have been very heavy, they very naturally regarded this figure as rather a large one, and submitted that $100 would be a proper amount of compensation. Kilpatrick could not be convinced of the facts, and demanded the amount of $200 and $200 he will receive. What an inspiration this will prove to the orator of the evening! As he touches up in glowing terms, in high flying metaphors, and in smoothly rounded periods the sufferings and triumphs of the "Boys in Blue," how the greenbacks will glare at him from his wallet! With every tear that he drops upon the dusty stage over his fallen comrades in arms, a $5 note will slip into his breeches pocket; with every grand flourish over the triumphal march of the survivors, a double X will steal into the same yawning receptacle!"

Another Radical paper says of him: Kilpatrick certainly had the reputation of being a great blower in the army, and those that knew both him and Butler, assert that there is but little, if any, choice between the two men. It is about 'which and 'tother,' perhaps a little more 'tother than which."

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN,
Or Pure Liquor of Juniper Berries,

This favorite brand of Pure London Cordial Gin, has stood the test of time, imitation, piracy, high tariffs and unfair competition, and still enjoys a constantly increasing sale; showing that true merit does not always go unappreciated.

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN is offered to the public as a perfectly reliable specific in all cases of DISEASED BLADDER and KIDNEYS. It acts directly on these organs, with a directness and speediness which render it invaluable to persons suffering from GRAVEL, DIABETES INFLAMED BLADDER, scanty and highly colored urine, and in all cases where, from whatever cause, a healthful diuretic is required.

Ladies subject to painful menstruation, can by the use of Cordial Gin a few days previous to, and during illness, obtain great relief. In such instances it should be taken with sugar and warm water.

As a tonic and beverage this Gin is unequaled, as it possesses none of the headache properties to be found in those poisons, now so frequently sold under the names of Gin, Brandy, Whiskey, &c.

FROM WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11, P. M.

Governor Smith, of Alabama, has departed homewards.

General Grant and Colfax will be officially informed of their election, on Saturday.

Mudd's pardon will reach him the middle of next week.

The following is the vote of the Reconstruction Committee on admitting Mississippi:

Ayes—Bingham, Norris and Payne.

Nays—Boutwell, Brooks, Beck, Beaman and Farnsworth.

It is confidently asserted that the Senate Judiciary Committee will report to-morrow on Virginia.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11, P. M.

SENATE.—The Bill for building a bridge between N. w York and Brooklyn was tabled.

Wilson reported a Bill amending the Army rules and regulations.

Davis presented the following joint resolution:

"That the noisy and disorderly conduc of Benjamin F. Butler and other members of the House during the counting of the votes for President and Vice-President, whereby, said business was disturbed and obstructed, is disreputable to the said Benjamen F. Butler and other representatives acting with him, and a wrong and insult to the people of the United States."

The resolution went over under the rules.

A bill providing the execution of judgments in capital cases, passed.

The resolution for printing a medical and surgical history of the rebellion was recommitted.

The Senate resumed the consideration of the currency bill. Conkling felt satisfied that the country must wait for extrication from the financial difficulties until the advent of the new Secretary of the Treasury. Several long speeches were delivered.

HOUSE.—The day was devoted to Butler's resolution, censuring Wade and the Senate.

Bingham denounced Butler's conduct and his resolution fiercely.

The House meets to-night to consider invalid persons, and resumes Butler's resolution to-morrow.

FROM RICHMOND.

RICHMOND, Feb. 11, P. M.

In the United States District Court to-day, the District Attorney under instructions from the Attorney General in accordance with the President's amnesty proclamation, entered nolle prosequi in both indictments against Jefferson Davis and in those against Lee, Wade, Hampton, Breckenridge, Longstreet, Wise, Pryor, Sedden, Mahone, Early, and thirty others, and on motion of Robt. LIFE INSURANCE.

NATIONAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,
OF THE
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.
WASHINGTON, D. C.

Chartered by Special Act of Congress, Approved July 25th, 1868.

CASH CAPITAL,
$1,000,000,
PAID IN FULL.

BRANCH OFFICE:
FIRST NATIONAL BANK BUILDING,
PHILADELPHIA,

where the general business of the Company is transacted, and to which all general correspondence should be addressed.

OFFICERS.

CLARENCE H. CLARK, President.
JAY COOKE, Chairman Finance and Executive Committee.
HENRY D. COOKE, Vice President.
EMERSON W. FEET, Secretary and Actuary.

This Company, National in its character, offers, by reason of its large capital, low rates of Premium, and New Tables, the most desirable means of insuring life yet presented to the public.

The rates of premium being largely reduced, are made as favorable to the insurers as those of the best Mutual Companies, and avoid all the complications and uncertainties of Notes. Dividends and the misunderstandings which the latter are so apt to cause the Policy-holder.

Several new and attractive tables are now presented, which need only to be understood to prove acceptable to the public, such as the INCOME-PRODUCING POLICY and RETURN PREMIUM POLICY. In the former, the policy-holder not only secures a life insurance, payable at death, but will receive, during life, after a period of a few years, an ANNUAL INCOME equal to ten per cent. (10 per cent.) of the par of his policy. In the latter the Company agrees to return to the assured the total amount of money he has paid in, in addition to the amount of his policy.

The organization of this Company on the LOW RATE, CASH PLAN, with new features and unequaled security, has evoked the most remarkable opposition from other and rival Companies. By means, fair and unfair, they have sought to injure the new system, and have attacked it with a degree of virulence unknown in the history of Life Insurance.

Not satisfied with the immense sums of money paid Insurance and other journals, to try and check the rapid progress of the National an unsuccessful motion was made in Congress to repeal its charter, all of which but accelerated its speed for since then the largest policies issued has been to members of Congress, whose attention has been thus attracted to its unsurpassed advantages. In the face of this opposition, the work of the Company has gone steadily forward, and it is with no little satisfaction that the GENERAL AGENTS are able to state that the business to date is far in advance of anything hitherto accomplished.

In Six Months 3,000 Policies have Been Issued.

INSURING, IN ROUND NUMBERS,

$10,000,000.

" " Eastern " THOS. THOMPSON.

Office: First door South of Raleigh Nat. Bank, RALEIGH, N. C.

THIS HOME COMPANY, CHARTERED BY the Legislature of North Carolina, insures property against loss or damage by

FIRE, LIGHTNING, OR TORNADO,

and does business on the Mutual and Joint Stock plans.

The character of those who control the affairs of the Company is a sufficient guarantee that it is, what it professes to be, a HOME ENTERPRIZE, offering ample and liberal protection against loss by fire, &c., on the most easy and liberal terms to insurers.

The TWENTY THOUSAND DOLLARS in N. C. Bonds, required by the Charter to be deposited with the Public Treasurer, have promptly been so deposited and the Treasurer's receipt therefor obtained.

Policies are issued for a term not to exceed five years.

No other Company offers greater advantages to insurers.

Now is the time for all who feel any interest in a HOME INSTITUTION to come forward and encourage this Company—receiving, as they will, reciprocal benefit in the enhancement of value and protection of their property.

For further particulars, address the Secretary, or cobalt General or Local Agents, who will, in due time, be announced.

ALL LOSSES PROMPTLY ADJUSTED AND PAID.

NEW ARRANGEMENT.

The RALEIGH SENTINEL having passed under the Editorial management of the undersigned, it will, from the present date, be conducted by him.

It will be the zealous and fearless advocate of the CONSTITUTION of the United States, seeking to bring the people back to their ancient reverence for that immortal instrument, and to restore the policy of the country to that honored standard, as the only guarantee of National prosperity.

It will do justice to the men and measures of the present day, whenever they may merit it, but it will unsparingly lash and denounce all who set themselves up in opposition to the Federal Constitution, and hold up to the public indignation corruption and imbecility in high places.

It will ardently seek the promotion of the best interests of North Carolina,—moral, educational, material and political.

THE LATEST NEWS

From every quarter, both by mail and telegraph, will be carefully collated and presented.

Full and correct market and financial reports will be given.

And, in one word, no effort will be spared to make the SENTINEL, in all respects, a reliable

Kittrell's Springs Female College.

GRANVILLE CO., N. C.

THE EXERCISES OF THIS INSTITUTION will be resumed the second Wednesday in February.

The Annual Commencement will occur the last Wednesday in June.

REV. T. M. JONES, the former popular and accomplished President at Greensboro and Louisburg Female Colleges, has accepted the Presidency of this school, and will enter upon his duties in February. His long and successful experience his eminent scholarship, and his devotion to the educational interests of the South, forbid any word of commendation.

REV. C. B. RIDDICK, formerly President, is still identified with the operations of the Institution, and retires from the care of the Literary Department, only to devote himself more exclusively to its other interests.

LOCATION not to be surpassed. The celebrated MINERAL WATER an unfailing fountain of health. EDUCATIONAL FACILITIES complete. An extensive APPARATUS and LIBRARY. MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS new and of the best style.

Terms moderate as at any other school of similar grade.

Persons wishing to send their daughters will remember that we are on the great line of railroad leading North and South, within less than half-mile of Kittrell's Depot, Raleigh and Gaston Railroad.

For other particulars, apply to

REV. T. M. JONES, PRESIDENT,
or, to REV. C. B. RIDDICK,

THE OLD RALEIGH & GASTON RAIL ROAD THE SHORTEST, QUICKEST, SAFEST AND BEST LINE, NORTH AND SOUTH, TO BE LEFT OUT IN THE COLD, UNLESS SHIPPERS SPECIALLY SAY VIA. R. & G. R. R.!

WE inaugurated and are the Great through Inland Air Line Route to all the Northern markets, and have successfully worked the Line to the entire satisfaction of Shippers, North and South, for the last ten years, as the ten Thousand Shippers in North and South Carolina will testify. We paid the State near Seven Hundred Thousand Dollars for her Interest in this Road—thereby saving the people from Taxation for all time to come (40,000 per year; and we unhesitatingly declare that we can and will give more dispatch to all points, North and South, than any other Line.

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES WITHOUT LABOR.

THE AUTOMATIC CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.

THIS BOILER IS MOST EFFECTUAL, reliable and universally recommended. It can be used on any Stove or Range, in any boiler, and the LOW PRICE of the article places it within the reach of every family.

This Boiler operates upon purely philosophical principles, is self-acting, and dispenses with labor and the wear of the clothes.

The hot suds and steam, by the action of heat, are driven up through tubes poured upon the clothes, and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing all articles, from the finest laces to the bed-blanket. For Flannels it is invaluable, as it does not full them as in the old process of rubbing and pressing.

The time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes is twenty to thirty minutes, and nearly three hundred gallons of boiling suds are forced through the fabric, thoroughly loosening and eradicating the dirt WITHOUT LABOR or friction.—A thorough rinsing finishes the process.

Washing day will no longer be a terror and dread to housewives. The cost of the Boiler will soon be returned in the SAVING OF TIME AND LABOR, and the great saving in the wear of clothes.

The great value of this invention appears so clear, and appeals so directly to common sense, that we have deemed it unnecessary to accompany its introduction with numerous letters of approval, &c.

No invention has met with such ready sale and given such satisfaction. Call at LOUGEE & BROTHER'S, and see its wonderful operations.—We have the exclusive right to sell and manufacture in the state.

DRY GOODS.

NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS!

AT HOME AGAIN!!

WITH A HOUSE RAMMED AND PACKED FULL OF

NEW FALL AND WINTER GOODS,

FOR

1868.

COME TO

A. CREECH'S!

For Ladies' Goods! For Gentlemen's Goods! For Misses' Goods! For Boys' Goods! Ditto for Children!

MY STOCK IS LARGE AND VERY COMplete. Allow me to say that you see some very strange advertisements. Some say they bought goods before the rise—some after the decline—some just in time—some in luck again—some buy goods cheaper than anybody else—some selling goods at unprecedentedly low prices—some controlling the trade &c., &c., and all such stuff. What a lucky set of individuals!

Now just let ME tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug—large enough to be seen even with one eye shut? So let them talk, puff and blow, but STOP, LOOK OUT! HANDS OFF! and show your good judgment by to buy your goods. I intend to run through this campaign with my motto, to give each and every individual value received for their support!

A fine opportunity for the ladies to exercise their inalienable rights, as well as the gentlemen. Don't stop until you COME TO CREECH'S. You will find me at H. Smith's corner, attending to my business, always ready to give you the worth of your money.
